Living Well WITH DEMENTIA

The time is NOW!

Why Sponsor?

- ◆ Easy access to a unique high-powered audience of customers that includes leaders, executive decision-makers, and other influencers focused on enhancing the lives of people living with dementia.
- ◆ The Crowne Plaza's historic Union Station Conference Center is a uniquely amazing event space to network and meet one-on-one with current and potential customers.
- ◆ Be recognized as a leader in dementia-focused products and services.
- ◆ To be at the vanguard of learning the most current information and engaging directly with individuals living with dementia and renowned dementia specialists from across the country.

"The DAA conference changes your perception of living with dementia in a profound way. I go to dozens of conferences every year, and always look forward to this event as you wind up being educated and inspired."

— Jack York, Co-Founder
It's Never 2 Late

OUR CONFERENCE AUDIENCE

Our conference brings together a wide and diverse large national gathering of national leaders and influencers, including:

- ◆ Individuals living with dementia and their care partners
- ◆ Providers of memory care, skilled nursing, assisted living, home care and adult day services
- ◆ Dementia specialists and healthcare practitioners
- ◆ Community leaders of AAA's, Dementia friendly initiatives, and Memory Cafes
- ◆ Researchers and academics
- ◆ Local, state and federal government agencies

Our conference participants are eager to engage with you and learn about the services and products you offer to support their efforts.

Here's what some of DAA's previous conference participants had to say —

◆ "I go to many conferences and this was by far the most profound. Everything about it was superb."

◆ "I have NEVER been to such an amazing conference. I am forever changed because of it and am carrying the lessons learned back"
